HOURS OF WORK

Friday - 0900 - 1730

Sunday - 1030 - 1630

30-minute unpaid break for lunch.

Closed Christmas Day, Boxing Day, New Years' Day & Easter Sunday.

OUR IDEAL CANDIDATE

- Retail and/or customer facing experience.
- Excellent communication skills.
- High level of attention to detail.
- Punctual and reliable
- Flexible approach and availability to work peak periods and cover holiday.

ABOUT THE ROLE

The role of a Gift Barn Assistant is to ensure exceptional customer service, delivering information about company products and services in a professional and welcoming manner.

The Gift Barn requires independent working; therefore, this role will suit someone who is able to use own initiative as well as naturally helpful and attentive.

Please note that all shop floor roles are fairly manual and involve being on your feet, lifting and carrying.

Key responsibilities:

- Assisting customers in finding the products they are looking for.
- Processing card and cash payments through an integrated till system.
- Stocking shelves and creating eye catching displays.
- Keep the sales floor, stock rooms, and checkout areas clean and organised.
- Constantly striving to develop your understanding of not only the products, but also the numerous services and activities available on the Priory Farm Estate.
- Adhering to company policies and H&S standards at all times.

ABOUT US

Nestled within the beautiful Surrey Hills and yet only 35 minutes from London Bridge by train, Priory Farm Estate, a family run business founded by the Shinnars in 1957, established itself originally as a working farm and major supplier to the food industry.

Today, over 65 years later, we have created a bustling rural hub consisting of our award-winning farm shop, gift barn, family adventure trail, seasonal pumpkin picking, event venue and newly renovated extension and state-of-the-art Butchery, Garden Centre and Café.

The site welcomes some one million customers each year who appreciate the excellent service and quality we guarantee.
