ABOUT THE ROLE

A rare and exciting opportunity has arisen for a passionate Butchery Manager to join our award-winning Farm Shop Butchery.

Since relocating our butchery into our newly, purpose-built extension in the Farm Shop, our skilled team have transformed the space into a modern-day stage for the craft of traditional butchery. We're all about quality and are pleased to work directly with British farmers who advocate natural rearing methods without the use of intensive farming. We care deeply about animal welfare and its significance in the quality and flavour we're proud to offer.

If you share in this ethos, are an expert in the trade with proven leadership qualities, we'd love to hear from you.

Key responsibilities:

- Hands on management of day-to-day butchery operations
- Team leadership
- Customer service
- Safety and compliance
- Full carcass breakdown
- Quality control
- Sales performance and cost control

ABOUT US

Nestled within the beautiful Surrey Hills and yet only 35 minutes from London Bridge by train, Priory Farm Estate, a family run business founded by the Shinnars in 1957, established itself originally as a working farm and major supplier to the food industry.

Today, over 65 years later, we have created a bustling rural hub consisting of our award-winning farm shop, gift barn, family adventure trail, seasonal pumpkin picking, event venue and newly renovated extension and state-of-the-art Butchery, Garden Centre and Café.

The site welcomes some one million customers each year who appreciate the excellent service and quality we guarantee.
