HOURS OF WORK

Sunday 1030 - 1630

All shifts include a 30-minute unpaid break for lunch.

Closed Easter Sunday, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, 27th December and New Year's Day.

OUR IDEAL CANDIDATE

- Experience in food retail environment
- Weekday availability to cover annual leave and complete overtime shifts.
- Approachable.
- Adaptable by nature.
- Punctual and reliable.
- Thrives in team oriented environments.
- Takes pride in their work.
- High attention to detail.

ABOUT THE ROLE

Are you a friendly, food-loving individual? Join our team in providing outstanding service to our loyal customers! Previous experience in a similar environment is beneficial, but not essential – we'll teach you everything you need to know. However, a genuine interest in locally-sourced food and food trends is what will set you apart from other applicants.

Please note that this role involves manual tasks, including standing, lifting, and carrying.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Exceed customer expectations by providing a friendly, knowledgeable service.
- Create eye-catching displays, keeping shelves well stocked.
- Organise the fridge, cold stores and stock room.
- Serve customers and operate the till.
- Maintain a clean and tidy work space.
- Support a safe working environment (H&S, Food Hygiene and company policies).

- Well-maintained countryside surroundings

ABOUT US

Nestled within the beautiful Surrey Hills and yet only 35 minutes from London Bridge by train, Priory Farm Estate, a family run business founded by the Shinnars in 1957, established itself originally as a working farm and major supplier to the food industry.

Today, over 65 years later, we have created a bustling rural hub consisting of our award-winning farm shop, gift barn, family adventure trail, seasonal pumpkin picking, event venue and newly renovated extension and state-of-the-art Butchery, Garden Centre and Café.

The site welcomes some one million customers each year who appreciate the excellent service and quality we guarantee.
