HOURS OF WORK

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Saturday
10am - 4pm

All shifts include a 30-minute unpaid break for lunch.
Closed Easter Sunday, Christmas Day, Boxing Day, 27th December and New Year's Day.

OUR IDEAL CANDIDATE

- Must have good plant and horticulture knowledge.
- Horticultural qualifications.
- Friendly, approachable individual who is able to adapt to different customer needs.
- The position is physically demanding and will involve regular lifting as well as standing for long periods of time.

ABOUT THE ROLE

We're seeking an enthusiastic, plant-savvy individual with great people skills to become part of our team in our beautifully refurbished Garden Centre.

In this role, you'll spend most of your time in the outdoor plant area, assisting customers and ensuring our displays are always looking their best. It's a great opportunity for someone who enjoys working with both plants and people, and who can stay flexible in a fast-paced retail environment.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Use your passion for plants and product knowledge to build customer trust and encourage repeat visits.
- Care for and maintain plants, including regular watering during warmer months and effective weed control.
- Create and maintain attractive, well-presented displays.
- Provide helpful solutions to customer queries.
- Support sales through excellent service and by operating the tills.
- Manage stock, ensuring all items are accurately priced and clearly ticketed.
